INDUSTRIAL FAIRMONT

A rest room and foyer is being built in the lobby of the Hippodrome theatre. Decorators are now at work furnishing up the place and as soon as they have completed the wall deco-ration furnishers will be put to work. Comfortable settees and lounges, casy chairs and tables will be placed, while some handsome ferns and statuary will iend a real foyer look. Inside the the-atre some equally important changes are being made. Two new heaters have been installed and a complete new set of scenry is being painted. Jack Heilman, the new manager, is determined to set a new standard in stock company offerings in the city and attract to the Hippodrome a class of patronage such as would find delight in Grand opera.

The reinforcing steel for the Ar-cade building has arrived and the contractors are now hastening with the concrete work. The structual or next day, and on its arrival the superstructure will be commenced.

All of the thousand of feet of lumber that are used in the making of boxes for the Owens Bottle Machine company come from a mill in North Carolina where the aromatic pine boards are sawed into the sizes in making the boxes and printed with the trade mark and advertising of the firm whose bottles will later be placed therein. To take a walk through the stock rooms of the Lange Crist Box Factory, who make all the Owens boxes, is like walking through a pine wood on a hot summer day when the pun is shinning and the smell of pine permeates everything.

A concrete mixer which operates without all the clang and clangor of the usual mixer, is the one being opprated by the Traction company on Main street in preparing cement for filling around the new Great White Way poles. An electric motor is set machine, a wire is thrown up to the leed wire of the Traction company's. the fuice is turned on and without scarcely a bit of noise o rexcitement the mixer starts mixing.

How a street car lifts up and places in position the poles being placed on the New White Way, is one of the in-leresting things that hundreds downtown stop to watch. A support is built up over the hole that the pole is to rest in. A block and tackle is fitted to the pole, a street car pulls the other end of the rope and slowly the pole is lifted to position.

The fact that Vance, Harris, Ja-cobs and all the other cripples have sufficiently recovered to be able to play at Penn if necessary makes it possible for Neale and Kellison to re some of their other stars for the Thanksgiving encounter at Fairmont. It is even probable that Beck, Calac, Fisher, Morison and one or two others whose work will largely determine the Thanksgiving day result will not even make the trip to Philadelphia and it

Normal-Keyser Game Here is Cancelled

The Normal-Keyser football game-scheduled to be played here this Sat-urday, was cancelled after a meeting of the coach and the squad yesterday afternoon. When the result of the meeting was made known to the school there was a general howl of protest. since in almost all the student body looks on the action as a lay down.

Keyser held D. & E. to a pretty fair score, but because D. & E. ran away with the locals, Normal did not wish to play Keyser. The action of the meet-ing yesterday finished football at the Normal for this season and did nothing remarkable toward creating enhusiasm for it next year.

Our Store For Men Is Looking Very Well

The new stock of clothing, furnishings, hats, shoes, under-wear, gloves and all accessories is probably larger and in better variety than any others to be found hereabouts. It is certain that we have been very careful in selecting the merchandise, and a large part of it made especially for us in exclusive ways. We do not believe any man can do better than let us outfit him for Thanksgiving and all winter.
